Hanna says, "the boys" called and he "responded." He will have a good deal of responding to do before next November.

Soldiering in the U. S. army isn't quite as monotonous as it used to be. The boys are seeing a good deal of the world, whether they see any fun in it or not.

Spain isn't a bit flustered over the racket in China. She hasn't anybody nor any trade to protect over there, and can look on while the mauling proceeds.

The Empress Dowager Tsi An is making about as bad a hand in running China as Boss Marian is in running the Rep.-Pop. business in North Carolina.

Sugar has been advanced another tenth of a cent a pound which makes the ninth advance since the late combine, which is now making a profit of over $500,000 a week.

Being shot isn't a very nice thing at any time, but it must be particularly annoying to English and German soldiers in China to be shot down with English and German guns and ammunition.

A correspondent of the Washington Post says the vote of Kansas is in doubt, on account of the large number of independent voters, mostly farmers. Teddy Roosevelt's trip to whoop 'em up was a failure.

Some of the coal mining companies in Colorado are importing Southern negroes to work in the mines, not because labor is scarce or high out there but because the negroes work for less than white men.

After snob W. W. Astor has been snubbed some more by the English nabobs, perhaps he may conclude to renounce his British allegiance, return to this country, take out papers of citizenship, and try to be an American.

A queer thing recently happened in a Paterson, N. J., shoe factory. The boiler exploded and blew several yards of shoe laces into the body of one of the workmen, one of which in some mysterious way got wound around one of his ribs.

The Kentucky Legislature didn't propose to take any chances when it passed a law declaring it "unlawful for any person to discharge at random any deadly weapon whether said weapon be loaded or unloaded." It is frequently the case that the "unloaded" weapon does the harm.

It is said that Mr. Bryan has abandoned the idea of running a front porch campaign, which was a very sensible thing to do if he ever thought of the front porch business. McKinley has a pre-emption claim on that, entered in his behalf by M. Hanna.

CLOSING SESSION.

North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association Adjourned Yesterday Afternoon.

MR. R. H. JORDAN PRESIDENT.

Winston Chosen as the Next Place of Meeting—Address by President of National Retail Druggists' Association—Banquet Given.

The North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association after a two day's session in Wilmington adjourned yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock to meet in Winston next June, the exact date to be designated by the president and secretary of the association and the local secretary, who is Mr. E. W. O'Hanlon, of Winston. The sessions have been very pleasant and Castle Hall proved an especially desirable place for the meetings. Electric fans were kept going apace with the thermometer during the past two days which have been exceedingly warm and the hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion by Mr. C. F. Will Rehder. Messrs. William Niestlie, James C. Munds and Wm. H. Green, of the local entertainment committee contributed in many other respects towards making things agreeable for the visiting pharmacists.

During the morning session the same officers presided as on the day before and the attendance was swelled by late arrivals on Wednesday evening's and yesterday morning's trains. In addition to these there were about 15 other pharmacists of the State admitted to membership.

The executive committee made a further report at the morning session and officers for the ensuing fiscal year were named as follows:

President—R. H. Jordan, Charlotte.

First Vice President—John H. Hardin, Wilmington.

Second Vice President—H. T. Hicks, Raleigh.

Third Vice President—W. A. Leslie, Morganton.

Secretary—P. W. Vaughan, Durham.

Treasurer—A. J. Cook, Fayetteville.

Executive Committee—G. R. Pilkington, Pittsboro; J. Hicks Bunting, Wilmington; G. R. Wootten, Hickory; A. S. Harrison, Enfield; P. W. Vaughan (ex officio,) Durham.

Committees on Papers and Queries, Trade Interests, Adulteration, Legislation, and Delegates to the American Pharmaceutical, Virginia, South Carolina and Maryland Pharmaceutical Associations will be named by the president later.

A pleasing feature of the morning session was an address by Mr. Simon N. Jones, of Louisville, president of the National Association of Retail Druggists. His subject was along the lines of trade interests, evils, etc., and is spoken of very complimentarily. He referred to the sale of drugs by grocers and persons other than druggists; of the now uncalled for internal revenue stamp tax and other irregularities that are grappling at the throats of honest dealers.

The afternoon session was principally taken up with the installation of officers and the hearing of a further report from the executive committee. Applications for membership were also acted upon.

At 5 o'clock in the afternoon the visiting pharmacists left over the Wilmington Seacoast Railroad for Wrightsville as the guests of the Wilmington Drug Association. They were tendered last night at the Seashore Hotel a splendid "seaside" banquet, during which the utmost good fellowship prevailed.

The sessions of the Association have been pleasant and profitable and Wilmington is glad to have had the State pharmacists with her upon the occasion of their annual meeting. Official reports of the meetings were taken in short hand by Miss Tallulah DeRosset.

Board Of Pharmacy.

Mr. William Simpson, the veteran secretary of the Board of Pharmacy, said yesterday evening that the board had not yet completed the work of passing upon the examination papers of applicants for license and as the task in an unusually heavy one this year, it will probably not be until after members of the board have gone home that all the papers will have been gone over.

SENT TO CASTLE HAYNES.

County Convicts Have Been Put to Work in Phosphate Mines There.

Thirty-three county convicts have been taken up to Castle Haynes to be used in mining phosphate rock by the Hanover Land and Improvement Company, an equitable agreement having been reached between Chairman McEachern, of the Board of County Commissioners, and Mr. C. C. Chadbourn, general manager of the mines there, by which the Improvement Company will get the phosphate rock and the county all that is adapted to road work. The agreement is believed to be a very advantageous one for the county.

Mr. W. H. Shearin has been engaged by the county to superintend the work at the mines. Active work will be begun Saturday or Monday.

Held Examination.

Eight applicants were examined for teachers' certificates by Capt. Ed Wilson Manning yesterday. The number was equally divided between white and colored. There was one applicant for a scholarship at the Peabody Normal School, Nashville, Tenn. Prof. Washington Catlett assisted in holding the examination.

BASE BALL TEAM WILL BE SUPPORTED.

Enthusiastic Meeting Held Last Night and Large Sum Subscribed—Other Notes of Interest—Tarboro To-day.

There was a small but very enthusiastic meeting of base ball fans at the Y. M. C. A. last night. The small attendance was due to the fact that many base ball enthusiasts were on the beaches. The unanimous sentiment expressed by those present was to loyally support the team throughout the season. A handsome sum was subscribed and the outlook for the Wilmington team is unusually bright. Committees will be appointed later to solicit further subscriptons.

Mr. Nixon Davis said that at the beginning of the season it was thought that the North Carolina Base Ball Association would be represented by teams playing men of semi-professional type, but since that time the various teams have developed such strength, it has been found necessary to employ professional ball players in order to cope with the other teams in the league. The Wilmington team has been very materially strengthened and it is believed that the people of Wilmington will now give it unlimited support.

Tarboro's team will arrive this morning and will play here to-day, Saturday and Monday. The game will be called this afternoon at 4.30 o'clock sharp. Townsend and Radcliffe will be the battery for the visitors, and Allen and Gwaltney will do the honors for Wilmington.

Wilmington's team will line up as follows: Gwaltney, c.; Allen, p.; Wills, 1b.; McBride, 2b.; Gilligan, ss,; Stearns, 3b.; Summersgill, rf.; Collier, cf.; Rea, lf.

The Executive Committee will meet in Raleigh July 27th to pass on the game protested with Durham.

Wilmington leaves on the 26th for Statesville to play two games, and also three games with Charlotte. She will close the first half of the season with two games with Tarboro here August 3rd and 4th.

It is only just to the Wilmington Street Railway Company to say that the managers have exerted themselves to the utmost to provide everything possible toward the success of the sport in Wilmington. Not only have members of the home team been provided with passes to and from Hilton but visiting teams have been extended a similar courtesy. This morning the diamond will be rolled over by a heavy road machine and it goes without saying that this will be of much benefit.

DEMOCRATIC SPEAKER EGGED

Unprovoked Insult to an Editor While Discussing the Amendment—Methods of Butler, Holton & Co.

Yesterday afternoon's Wilson News says:

Last night Mr. W. A. Finch and Mr. C. W. Gold filled their appointment at Bloomery School House, near Finch's mill, in Taylor's township, some six miles from Wilson, where the Populist influence is strong. The meeting was composed almost entirely of Populists, but one man present being known to be a Democrat. Mr. Finch, who was suffering from a cold, had requested Mr. Gold to make the only speech. This he did, calmly discussing the value of the Amendment, making no harsh remarks, using no inflammatory language. He invited questions from his hearers and answered them. Just as he concluded and stepped from the rostrum Mr. Wood O'Neal asked him another question, which he had started to answer, when through the window to his right from the outside darkness there came a volley of eggs.

It was an unexpected and unprovoked assault. One of the eggs struck Mr. Gold full on the arm, breaking and covering his shirt sleeve, for he had taken off his coat on account of the heat. The other eggs broke as they struck a post and the sides of the window, scattering their coatents right and left. Mr. Gold heard the sound of people running and quieted the disturbed audience. Those present deplored the unprovoked and outrageous affair, declaring they knew nothing of the perpetrators.

So far as known Mr. Gold is the only Democratic editor and speaker in North Carolina ever egged while calmly discussing political measures, and the assault upon him is regarded as an outcome of the vicious advice of Butler, Holton and the fusion pie crowd.

Fire Yesterday Morning.

The fire at 4 o'clock yesterday morning was at the residence of A. J. Marshall, Esq., on Market between Ninth and Tenth streets, and was caused by a lamp explosion. None of the family was at home at the time and a lighted lamp had been left in the rear of the passage by an old colored man sleeping in a house in the back yard. The damage is about $150. The alarm was turned in from box 53 by some one passing, whose attention was attracted by the blaze.

TARBORO, N. C., July 19.—Vorhees went in the box again to day and held the Durham sluggers at his mercy. His pitching was the greatest ever seen here. Only one man reached second, and he scored on an error. Only twenty nine men faced him. Dannehower was hit hard and his support was mediocre. The game was close and interesting, though the locals outclassed the visitors. Bacon, Johnson and Vorhees lead in the hitting. Score:

CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 19.—Charlotte easily won the game from Raleigh to day by a score of 7 to 1. Bass was batted out of the box in the first inning by the heavy hitting "Presbyterians." Person was substituted and only three runs were made off of him. White, Charlotte's new pitcher, pitched a superb game, allowing the "Statesmen" only two safe hits, and doing some heavy hitting himself. Raleigh should have been shut out, as her only run was scored on a wild throw to third. Both teams played star ball, and the large crowd present thoroughly enjoyed a beautiful game. Score:

BACK FROM LUMBERTON.

Wilmington's Rapid Fire Gun Came Back Early This Morning—Magnificent Demonstration by People.

Capt. C. H. White, of the Wilmington Light Infantry, and Mr. William A. Whitney, who went to Lumberton to exhibit Wilmington's rapid fire gun at the big Democratic demonstration there yesterday, returned this morning on the freight train arriving here about 1:30 o'clock. Iredell Meares, Esq., also returned on the same train.

Capt. White speaks enthusiastically of the big meeting arranged by the people of Robeson and says the gun created much interest. The Croatans were out in large numbers and many of them, wearing red shirts, were mounted. The gun was carried in a float in the procession which was more than a mile long. A special feature of the parade was a snow white float in which was seated Miss French, representing "White Supremacy."

All along the Carolina Central on his way to Lumberton yesterday, Mr. Aycock received perfect ovations. At Laurinburg the train waited nearly an hour for him to speak to the people there. It was nearly 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the train reached Wilmington.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.

Initiated Five New Members and Served Refreshments Last Night.

Live Oak Camp No. 6, Woodmen of the World, last night celebrated in fitting manner the acquisition to its membership roll of five new "choppers," four of whom are residents of Southport, who expressed a desire to join the Wilmington Camp rather than to form a separate Camp there.

After the usual initiatory exercises a delightful spread of refreshmens and a watermelon feast was enjoyed in honor of the new members. As usual with the Woodmen, the STAR office was remembered when it came to feasting for which the Camp has sincerest thanks.

The newly initiated members are: Messrs. T. L. Vines, R. W. Davis, J. M. C. Fisher and Berg, of Southport, and Mr. E. B. Burkheimer, of Wilmington.

Boat Club.

The Y. M. C. A. Boat Club now numbers thirty members and much interest is being manifested in it. Dr. N. M. Wetzel, the physical director of the Y. M. C. A., is now at Southport, the guest of Col. Taylor's Boys' Brigade, and while there he will inspect several boats which have been offered for sale to the club.

Only Routine Business.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Merchants' Association was held at 3.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but only business of a routine and private character was transacted.

ROBESON AROUSED.

Six Thousand People at the Great Democratic Rally at Lumberton Yesterday.

AYCOCK AND GLENN SPOKE.

The Procession—A Thousand Red Shirts in the Parade—Great Barbecue—Beautiful Girls—Fine Music—Cannon Booming.

[Special Star Telegram.]

LUMBERTON, N. C., July 19.—This has been great day for Democracy in this section. The crowd present at the Democratic rally was conservatively estimated at six thousand; both Glenn and Aycock said it was the largest crowd they had spoken to during the campaign and those who have recently attended great gatherings in the State pronounce the one to day the most enthusiastic and best organized assemblage of Democrats they have seen. Chairman Geo B. McLeod and Col. N. A. McLean, assisted by other party leaders, have made a great fight and confidently expect twenty-five hundred majority for the amendment.

The Procession.

A grand pageantry, indeed, was the beautiful and orderly parade, pronounced by all who saw it the finest ever seen in this section of the State. The procession was headed by a phaeton, white as snow, drawn by the nicest horses in town, with harness to match the vehicle, which was driven by Miss Annie French, daughter of Col. W. F. French, one of North Carolina's fairest girls, who was attired in white and wore a crown of white. There were a number of other vehicles which carried young ladies, all of whom were beautifully attired in white.

Following this procession was a large company of mounted Red Shirts—the number being estimated at one thousand—who were commanded by that gallant leader of men, Col. N. A. McLean.

Aycock and Glenn both made powerful speeches. Glenn spoke for two and a half hours and Preached The Whole Gospel.

He covered the entire ground and edified the flock and brought sinners to repentance. Aycock followed, for only fifty minutes, in one of his happiest efforts. The people went wild as they listened to their peerless leader; he was at his best and no doubt did much good. He concluded his speech by saying that it was not necessary to speak long here; said he wanted to wait till he found more sinners.

A great barbecue, fine music, and hundreds of beautiful girls were among the other attractions. Cannons were fired all along during the morning, and at intervals through the entire day the air resounded with the reports of rapid fire guns.

W. F. Gibson, of Gibson, the first organizer of Red Shirts in North Carolina, was here from Scotland county and says that county will give 1,000 majority for the Amendment, out of 1,100 white voters. Walter H. Neal, Scotlands peerless leader, was here and helped to warm the occasion with his enthusiasm,

COL. WADDELL IN COLUMBUS.

Spoke to a Large Crowd at Fair Bluff on Wednesday Night.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

FAIR BLUFF, N. C., July 19.—Hon. A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, spoke to a large crowd in the Farmers' Central Warehouse last night on the constitutional amendment. It was a great speech by a great speaker. He appealed to white men to come together, regardless of party, defining this as not a party but a race question. It has done good in spite of the "Blind Tigers" that have been scattered all over this section.

Hon. J. A. Brown then spoke for a few minutes on the necessity for work in Columbus.

Said He Was Waited Upon.

A negro employed at the Home Brewing Company and living in the Fifth Ward, reported to the police last night that he had been waited upon by a number of men with pistols, and that he wished lodging for the night. He said he knew none of the men but saw them in front of his house and made his exit through the back window, going to the house of Mr. Lietgen, his employer, and telling him the circumstances. The negro thinks that it is a personal matter and has nothing to do with politics.

The police made prompt and diligent inquiry of the affair, but the investigation disclosed nothing.

CARL SCHURZ ON FORAKER.

Senator Foraker recently delivered a speech justifying the course pursued by the Administration in undertaking to establish by arms our supremacy over the Philippines, asserting that we were justified by the right of arms and purchase. These are the two grounds of justification alleged by all defenders of our "criminal aggression" because they are the only plea they can make.

Carl Schurz is a Republican. For some years he has not been in accord with the party, but in all essentials when it adhered to its original principles he has adhered to it, and when he takes issue with it he does it as a Republican defending the principles of the party which he helped to build and make successful. He stood with the administration when it espoused the cause of Cuba, and remained with it until it ignored the fundamental principles of the Republic, and the principles on which the Republican party professed to be based, by buying sovereignty over the Philippines and then by force of arms undertaking to force the inhabitants of those islands to recognize that sovereignty. In a letter to the New York Herald he reviews the speech of Senator Foraker and pulls to tatters the plea he puts up in justification of the policy of taking possession by force by virtue of the right gained by purchase. Mr. Schurz says:

"When the surrender of Manila had been obtained, and we had sufficient troops on the ground to make us masters of the situation, and we began negotiations for peace with the common enemy, and our Filipino allies asked to be heard in these negotiations as to the future of their country, we slammed the door in their faces as if they had no right to their country at all. And behind their backs we bought them, as former Secretary Day avers, from the "common enemy," bought them like a drove of sheep, and we got the "common enemy"—Spain—to "cede" to us the sovereignty over the Philippines, a sovereignty which, as we well know, she had practically lost and could not deliver, and which, according to the principle emphatically affirmed by ourselves in the case of Cuba, Spain had forfeited to the people of the islands. And then, even before that peace treaty had been ratified, and while it was very uncertain whether it would ever be ratified, President McKinley, without any legal right, by a bold usurpation of power, ordered the army to enforce that spurious sovereignty upon the whole archipelago. And then, when the Filipinos, our late allies, asserting their title to freedom and independence upon the ground of our own professed principles, refused to be sold and bought like a herd of cattle, we destroyed by force of arms the government they had set up and proceeded to shoot them down. And we have continued ever since in this killing business because we covet their country.

Here are statements of facts that Mr. Foraker nor anyone else can successfully contradict for they are known to all who have kept up with the current of events since Admiral Dewey struck the blow that resulted in destroying the Spanish power in the Philippines. In this he had with him the Philippine army which the Spaniards called "rebels," what the expansionists call them now. This administration through its military and other representatives encouraged the Filipinos to fight for independence. We snatched it away from them when they were about to win it and began to shoot them down because they objected to our snatching away from them what they had been fighting for and what they thought they had won. They did it with the assistance of this country, it is true, but this country was then professing to be their disinterested friend. They trusted implicitly in its honor and it basely deceived and betrayed them.

As supplementary to the pleas justifying the use of force to establish supremacy they advance what might be called the commercial argument, or the argument of greed, which, after all, is the real argument with the average expansionist. Mr. Foraker refers to this and Mr. Schurz answers it thus:

"Every intelligent observer of current affairs knows that if we had treated the Philippine Islanders justly by recognizing their right to independence as we had promised to recognize that of the Cubans, we could have obtained from them for the mere asking whatever commercial advantages, and whatever coaling stations and other accommodations for our navy, and whatever facilities for developing the resources of the islands and for exercising and elevating influence among the natives we might have reasonably desired. We would have had all this without killing more than ten thousand Filipinos, without sacrificing the lives of thousands of our own people and wrecking the mental and physical vitality of many more thousand by service in the tropics, without keeping up a large army in the Philippine, costing our taxpayers scores of millions of year; without making the populations of those islands, even if we succeed in subjugating them, our mortal enemies, always eager to kindle a fire in our rear whenever we get into a quarrel with any other Power, and thus weakening instead of strengthening us; without ruining our moral credit with the world by perverting our loudly heralded 'war of liberation and humanity' into a vulgar land grabbing game, and by scandalously betraying our allies; without making our Southern neighbors distrustful of our purposes, and thus undermining the Monroe Doctrine; without throwing overboard the fundamental principles of our republican government and the high ideals of our people as they are embodied in the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States and the teachings of the greatest men in our history, and without thus utterly demoralizing our democracy."

When the war closed with Spain the administration would have been very well satisfied with one good port as a coaling station and base of supplies and it was not until after our peace commissioners had arrived in Paris that it decided to grab the whole archipelago, and that is the reason why Filipino representatives were not allowed to have any voice as to the terms between Spain and this country. If we had dealt honorably and squarely by the Filipinos they would have been devoted to us and in a spirit of gratitude they would have granted us all the port privileges we asked and remained our warm friends besides, and, as Mr. Schurz says, it wouldn't have cost us a life nor a dollar.

The baby act, the "we-have-the-wolf-by-the-ear" and "can't-let-go" rot, he disposes of thus:

"That multitudes of Republicans are troubled in their consciences about what has been done there can be no doubt. The apologetic tone of their very platform shows it. They should have the courage honestly to speak their minds. Many well meaning men try to soothe their scruples by saying: 'True, it is a sad affair, but what can we do? We have the wolf by the ears and cannot let go.' This is simply pleading the baby act. I have never heard a valid reason why we should not even now pacify the Philippine Islands by applying to them the same principle that we applied to Cuba, aid them in establishing an independent government suitable to their conditions, and meanwhile protect them against foreign inteference. The difficulties that may be in the way of this are not nearly as great as those we shall meet if we subjugate the islands and try to hold them in subjection. The trouble is not that we 'cannot let go,' but it is that men of power in politics, moved by a mistaken 'patriotism,' or by greed, will not let go. They will be obliged to let go as soon as the American people fully appreciate that moral side of the question which Senator Foraker confesses himself unable to see."

The whole Philippine question is embraced in these three extracts, which are put so plainly and forcibly that the average man who reads can understand them and draw the distinction between expansion proper and "criminal aggression."

The Havemeyer family seems to have been hoodooed. The Philadelphia Press publishes a list of ten "tragedies" that are said to have occurred in that family since 1862. Three killed, one killed by disappointment, one died of broken heart after being divorced, three divorced, one died under the surgeon's knife, one bitter contest over will and one widowed.

REGISTER, NOW.

There are but two days left—to-day and to-morrow—for those to register who have not already done so.

The books close at sunset to-morrow and if your name is not on them you cannot vote.

Every white man who believes in the supremacy of the white man, and desires good government for himself and his children, should vote for it, and, he can't vote unless he is registered.

No citizen who desires good government should take it for granted that it will be secured without his help and therefore be indifferent about registering, for his vote may be needed.

If many felt that way we might be beaten by our own indifference.

It is important not only that we win this victory, but that we make the majority so large that there will be no doubt as to where the white men of North Carolina stand, and no encouragement for the advocates of black supremacy to lay claim that they were cheated and undertake to contest the verdict.

There are white men enough in North Carolina in favor of white supremacy to give the amendment and the Democratic State ticket 50,000 majority if they all register.

But even if your vote were not needed, do you want to be a drone and let your more patriotic brothers do the fighting for you, and you stand idly by and give them no help?

No true citizen or true man should be willing to do that and enjoy the fruits of a victory which he refused to take a part in winning.

This fight is not for the men who are now drawing up in line, but a fight for their families, for their wives and children, and for you, your family, your wife and children, who look to them and to you for protection.

You can't protect, defend and put them beyond peril unless you get into line with your brothers, and you can't do that unless your name is on the voter's roll.

For you who believe in white supremacy it will be an honor roll, and one of your proudest recollections will be that you took part and by your vote helped to make white supremacy permanent in North Carolina, but you can't do that unless you are registered.

There are times when circumstances require every man to take position so that there may be no doubting as to where he stands. That time is now.

There is no half way or neutral ground. The issue is white or black.

You must be with the white or with the black.

You can't be with the white, your own race, unless you vote with them, and you can't vote with them unless you are registered.

Neglect no longer, but see that your name is registered now.

Don't be a sluggard while your brothers are striving, and don't let it be said that victory was lost through your indifference or lack of patriotism, or that you have no claim to the honor and glory of the victory when it is won.

White men, register now, if you have not already done so, and help to make white rule the rule for all time in North Carolina, and to make New Hanover the champion white supremacy county of the State.

PERFIDY AND DISHONOR

In his indignation at the way in which the Republicans in the Legislature turned down the Populists when the Fusionists controlled the Legislature, Marion Butler gave out the following in an interview:

"The treacherous and despicable methods and conduct of the Republican party in breaking their co operative contracts with the People's party and in corrupting a small fraction of our party in the Legislature, to secure Pritchard's election, and to control and divide out the State patronage to the unholy combine, makes it in the future the party of perfidy and dishonor in North Carolina."

He spoke the truth when he characterized the Republican party as a party of perfidy and dishonor, but he knew that when he dickered with its leaders and agreed on fusion to get his share of the spoils of office and patronage. And yet with that knowledge, and with this denunciation from his own mouth on record, he is going around this State, cheek by jowl with Pritchard, and doing his utmost to again sell and deliver his Populist followers, if he has any, to the Republican party which he denounces as a party of perfidy and dishonor. It is a party of perfidy and dishonor, but in that it bears no comparison to Butler, who is perfidy and treachery personified, now engaged in the infamous work of betraying his own people and trying to turn North Carolina over to negro rule, that he may profit by it.

Cold Steel or Death.

"There is but one chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvellous power of Electric Bitters to cure Stomach and Liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided the surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It is positively guaranteed to cure Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles, and never disappoints. Price 50c at R. R. BELLAMY'S druggist. †

A LIFE-LONG REPUBLICAN DECLARES FOR IT.

Every day adds to the list of Republicans and Populists who declare their purpose to support and vote for the constitutional amendment. One of the latest of the Republicans to do so is Prof. Allen Jones, of Davidson county, a teacher by profession, who has been a life-long Republican, and is at present, we are told by the Lexington Dispatch, an internal revenue officer, with a salary of $3.00 per day. But that does not prevent him from acting on his convictions, in such striking contrast to the large majority of those employed in that service. He has resolved to vote for white supremacy and gives his reasons for it in the following letter published in the Dispatch:

LEXINGTON, N. C., July 14, 1900.
Editor Lexington Dispatch:

DEAR SIR: Much has been said about the proposed amendment to the constitution of North Carolina. Some condemn and some commend it. I, for one, have read and re read it, have heard it discussed by both sides, and, so far, have been unable to do more than honestly recommend it to the voters of North Carolina for ratification. I shall vote its ratification myself and cordially invite my friends of all political parties to join me in so noble a cause, viz: the enthronement of white supremacy, from the mountains to the sea.

"The amendment disfranchises no white voter whose ancestors were voters prior to January the 1st, 1867, provided such voter gets his name on the registration book before 1908. The amendment affects only the colored voter whose ancestor was not a voter prior to January the 1st, 1867. I sincerely hope that every voter in North Carolina, irrespective of party affiliation, will cast his vote to re claim his native State.

"Very respectfully,
"ALLEN JONES."

No man who reads the amendment with the honest intention of deciding for himself can fail to see that it is for the good of North Carolina, and for both races, and be a supporter of it, as every well disposed and patriotic citizen of the State is.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

Greensboro Record: Dr. D. A. Roberson, who has been ill at his home at Guilford College for some months, died Tuesday afternoon. He had Bright's disease, complicated with heart trouble and has been a great sufferer.

— Gastonia Gazette: A negro by the name of James White was killed in front of the residence of Dr. W. H. Hoffman last Friday night. Jim had left town on the 20th of May to escape arrest for selling whiskey. He was no doubt "on the blind," that night and in his efforts to get off the train was thrown against a cross tie and his skull broken.

— Lexington Dispatch: While fishing in Swearing Creek Saturday evening Mr. Jacob Koonts, of the Cotton Mills, caught a bull frog having fiye well-formed legs. His frogship uses his surplus leg the same as he does the others. Mr. Koonts still has it in his position and will keep it alive as long as possible.

— Weldon News: Mr. John W. Pugh, one of the oldest citizens of Northampton county, died at his home near South Gaston, last Saturday night in the 83rd year of his age. —— We are informed by some of the Halifax county farmers that there is less corn planted this year than has been known for several years. The high price of cotton during the early spring induced farmers to try the old way of planting all cotton.

— Clinton Democrat: There seems to be some difficulty in the matter of getting registrars in some of the townships. On account of threats made some of them have resigned and there is some confusion over the matter. Letters have been written threatening registrars with personal violence. All his is calculated to intimidate men in the discharge of their duty. These threats do not help the situation and those who make them are subject to penalties of law. —— To explode the fallacy of the fusion charge that white men will be disfranchised by the Amendment the white supremacy Club of Clinton has offered $100 to any native born white citizen of this county who will be disfranchised because he cannot read and write.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— If it should become necessary to call for volunteers to go to China it is hardly likely that T. Roosevelt, Esq., would become one of the first to offer his services. San Juan hill seems to have accomplished what was desired.—Chattanooga Times, Dem.

—— The plot to blow up the Elysee Palace and the one directed at President McKinley are quite likely two of a kind, both on paper, with no real intention of a destructive character behind either of them. So far as developed, they look more like practical jokes than anything else, but it is a poor manifestation of humor, and does not amuse anybody in either country. — New York Tribune, Rep.

— Mrs. Conger, the wife of the United States minister to Pekin, is said to be a Christian Scientist. The other day the followers of the cult in Chicago resolved that they would "concentrate their thought upon Pekin, to the end of assisting their sister in trouble out of her difficulties." The Chicago Scientists are firm in the belief that their concentration of thought has been effective, and that the news will soon come that Mrs Conger, at least, is safe.—Savannah News, Dem.

—— "The American friends of Aguinaldo," says the Knoxville Journal, "may howl as much as they please, but Uncle Sam will inforce his authority in the Philippines. Call it 'coercion' or 'imperialism' or what you may, but that is going to be the end of it." The "end," it may be noted, appears to be farther off now than it was year before last. Your Uncle Sam seems to be making slow progress towards enforcing his "authority" in the Philippines. —Charleston News and Courier, Dem.

— Imaginary Wealth: "This man," said the keeper softly, "imagines he has millions." "Isn't that nice?" answered the visitor. "Whenever he needs money all he has to do is to draw on his imagination."—Kansas City Times.

"The Smith

A mighty man is he," but he is not mighty enough to defy disease. It is a pathetic thing to see the strong man brought low, his muscles melting away until he can no more swing the heavy sledge to shape the glowing iron.

"I was troubled with malarial fever of about three years' standing, and was under doctors' care for quite a time," writes Mr. [illegible] Wells, of Farmland, Wayne Co., Ky. "They had almost given me up, and my suffering was very great. My pulse was very weak, breath short and I had severe pains in the back, head and legs. Had palpitation of heart, and from June 1st, 1895, to May 1st, 1896, I was not able to do a day's work. I purchased five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and before I had finished taking the first two bottles I was very much better. I continued taking the medicine, and by the time the fifth bottle was gone I was a well man."

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cleanses the blood of the poisons which feed disease, cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, and enables the proper assimilation of food. It is a flesh forming, muscle making medicine, making sound flesh and not flabby fat. It contains no whisky nor alcohol in any form.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her. This marvellous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 19.—To-days events in the cotton market were anything but smooth and regular. Influences bearing upon the market were numerous and conflicting while speculation much of the time was active. The market opened two points higher to three lower. A quick change of front on the part of Liverpool created distrust in local bull circles and later stampeded longs into an excited dash to unload cotton accumulated yesterday. The bear faction vigorously hammered the entire list, though directing efforts more especially against the August option, which for weeks past has been the football of both sides. From 9.42 that contract tumbled perpendicularly to 9.10, with the new crop months following at a lively rate. The cables portrayed a panic among holders abroad. The break in the English market was attributed to declaration of war against China by Russia, to exceptionally bearish crop reports from the South, and to the appearance of large selling orders from America. The decline here ceased, following a rally of three points abroad. From 9.10 August here quickly shot up to 9.26, after which there was another weak spot under fresh general selling, with August finally resting at 9.15. In the early afternoon shorts became apprehensive and in endeavoring to take profits forced the Summer delivery to 9.30. But once more liquidation swept prices downward and during the last hour fluctuations were radical in both directions, with the talent practically in control of the market. New Orleans backed up its bear principles by selling here on all the steadier intervals. The market closed steady in tone, with prices net five to nineteen points lower.

THE AMENDMENT.

Full Text of the Measure as Amended.

No Chance for Legal Squibbling—The Act Must Stand or Fall as a Whole.

[Raleigh News & Observer.]

Both houses of the Legislature yesterday (Wednesday) passed the Constitutional Amendment as revised and amended by the Constitutional Amendment committee and approved by the Democratic caucus. It is now fixed finally as it will be voted upon. Very few changes were made. The chief changes are:

1. Section 4 and 5 are made one.

2. The Educational and Grandfather alauses are made one and it is expressly declared that the whole scheme of uffrage is indivisible.

3. Poll tax must be paid in May instead of March as in the amendment as originally adopted.

4. This provision in the original amendment is omitted in the amendment now submitted:

"Poll taxes shall be a lien only on assessed property, and no process shall issue to enforce the collection of the snme except against assessed property."

5. A majority of the vote cast will be sufficient to adopt the amendment —not a majority of "qualified" voters.

The amendment as ratified last night is as follows:

6. It is provided and made perfectly plain that a man who registers under the grandfather clause shall forever have the right to vote.

An Act Supplemental to an Act Entitled "An Act to Amend the Constitution of North Carolina," ratified February 21st, 1899, the same being Chapter Two Hundred and Eighteen of the Public Laws of 1899.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That Chapter 218, Public Laws of 1899, entitled, "An Act to amend the Constitution of North Carolina," be amended so as to make said act read as follows:

"That article 6 of the Constitutional of North Carolina be, and the same is hereby abrogated, and in lieu thereof shall be substituted the following article of said Constitution as an entire and indivisible plan of suffrage:"

ARTICLE VI.

SUFFRAGE AND ELIGIBILITY TO OFFICE.

Section 1. Every male person born in the United States, and every male person who has been naturalized, twenty one years of age, and possessing the qualifications set out in this Article, shall be entitled to vote at any election by the people in the State, except as herein othewise provided.

Sec. 2. He shall have resided in the State of North Carolina for two years, in the county six months, and in the precinct, ward or other election district, in which he offers to vote, four months next preceding the election: Provided, that removal from one precinct, ward or other election district, so another in the same county, shall not operate to deprive any person of the right to vote in the precinct, ward or other election district from which he has removed until four months after such removal. No person who has been convicted, or who has confessed his guilt in open court upon indictment, of any crime, the punishment of which now is, or may hereafter be, imprisonment in the State's Prison, shall be permitted to vote unless the said person shall be first restored to citizenship in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 3. Every person offering to vote shall be at the time a legally registered voter as herein prescribed and in the manner hereafter provided by law, and the General Assembly of North Carolina shall enact general registration laws to carry into effect the provisions of this article.

Sec. 4. Every person presenting himself for registration shall be able to read and write any section of the Constitution in the English language; and, before he shall be entitled to vote, he shall have paid on or before the first day of May, of the year in which he proposes to vote, his poll tax for the previous year as prescribed by Article 5, Section 1, of the Constitution. But no male person, who was, on January 1st 1867 or at any time prior thereto, entitled to vote under the laws of any State in the United States wherein he then resided, and no lineal descendant of any such person shall be denied the right to register and vote at any election in this State by reason of his failure to possess the educational qualification herein described: Provided, he shall have registered in accordance with the terms of this section prior to December 1. 1908.

The General Assembly shall provide for the registration of all persons entitled to vote without the educational qualifications herein prescribed, and shall, on or before November 1st, 1908, provide for the making of a permanent record of such registration, and all persons so registered, shall forever there after have the right to vote in all elections by the people in this State, unless disqualified under Section 2 of this article: Provided, such person shall have paid his poll tax as above required.

Sec. 5. That this Amendment to the Constitution is presented and adopted as one indivisible plan for the regulation of the suffrage, with the intent and purpose to so connect the different parts, and to make them so dependent upon each tother, that the whole shall stand or fall together.

Sec. 6. All elections by the people shall be by ballot, and all elections by the General Assembly shall be viva voce.

Sec. 7. Every voter in North Carolina, except as in this article disqualified, shall be eligible to office, but before entering upon the duties of the office, he shall take and subscribe the following oath: "I, ... do solemnly swear (or affirm), that I will support and maintain the Constitution and laws of the United States, and the Constitution of North Carolina, not inconsistent therewith, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of my office, as ..... so help me God."

Sec. 8. The following classes of persons shall be disqualified for office: First, all persons who shall deny the being of Almighty God.

Second, all persons who shall have been convicted, or confessed their guilt on indictment pending; and whether sentenced or not, or under judgment suspended, of any treason or felony, or any other crime for which the punishment may be imprisonment in the Penitentiary, since becoming citizens of the United States, or of corruption or malpractice in office; unless such person shall be restored to the rights of citizenship in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 9. That this amendment to the Constitution, shall go into effect on the first day of July, 1902, if a majority of the votes cast at the next general election shall be cast in favor of this suffrage amendment.

Sec. 11. This amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted at the next general election to the qualified voters of the State, in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations as is provided in the law regulating general elections in this State, and at said elections those persons desiring to vote for such amendment shall cast a written or printed ballot with the words "For Suffrage Amendment" thereon; and those with a contrary opinion shall cast a written or printed ballot with the words "Against Suffrage Amendment" thereon.

¶ Sec. III. The votes cast at said election shall be counted, compared, returned and canvassed, and the result announced and declared under the same rules and regulations, and in the same manner as the vote for Governor, and if a majority of the votes cast are in favor of the said amendment, it shall be the duty of the Governor of the State, upon being notified of the result of said election, to certify said amendment, under the seal of the State, to the Secretary of the State, who shall enroll the said amendment so certified among the permanent records of his office.

Sec. IV. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

ARMOUR AS A BRAKEMAN.

The Millionaire's Brief and Unsuccessful Railroad Career.

The late George A. Sheldon, depot master of the Lake Shore station, who died after 46 years of continuous service with the Lake Shore company, was a veritable encyclopedia of railroad incident, and his well told tales if repeated in his own select phrase would rank as classic literature. His narrations were confined to actualities, thus giving them a real value. He was many years a conductor, and among the best of the incidents he related is the following:

"One day there stepped aboard my train a well dressed, business appearing man who as he tendered his fare remarked:

"'I see you are still on the road, Mr. Sheldon.'

"'Yes, I am still at it,' I replied, 'but I am not certain that I remember you, though I think I have seen you before.'

"'Yes, you have seen me before,' emphasized the passenger, 'and while you doubtless have forgotten it I still remember that you once did me the greatest favor of my life. Come to my seat when you get time, and I'll tell you about it.'

"When I had finished collecting fares, I dropped into the stranger's seat, and he continued: 'Years ago I was four days brakeman aboard your train. At the end of the four days you took me aside and remarked in a tone of sympathy: 'I'm sorry to have to tell you so, but the fact is, young man, you are too much of a fool to ever make a good railroader. Take my advice and quit.' I took your advice and went into other business, and the result is I made a fair fortune. I thank you, Mr. Sheldon, for your wise counsel.'

"'What is your name?' I asked.

"'Phil D. Armour of Chicago,' replied my ex-brakeman, 'and I shall always remember your kindness. I was a stupid railroader, and you advised me for my good.'

"Until this interview," added Mr. Sheldon, "I never suspected that Philip D. Armour, the packer, was the brakeman I discharged years before."—Adrian (Mich.) Cor. Detroit News.

Sizes In Shoes.

"Very few shoe wearers probably know that a size in shoes is only one-third of an inch in length," explained a shoe dealer to the writer recently. "This doesn't seem much, and yet to many women it is a momentous affair. Two inches in a waist or bust measurement are not as apparent as one-third of an inch in the foot, for in the latter it is direct or lineal increase.

"The distaste for increasing the size of our shoes becomes more pronounced as we ascend the scale of the size stick. A woman who has habitually worn a No. 3 shoe, when necessity demands can don a 3½ without great sacrifice. She will retain the integral number 3, which in some measure compensates her for the added fraction, but a new integer, No. 4, is distasteful by reason of its formidable sound.

"If shoes, like hats, could be graded by eighths of an inch, she could take refuge in a 3⅛ shoe and yet be comparatively happy. From No. 4½ to No. 5 is still a greater trial to feminine nerves, and in the realm of 6's—well, few women speak of that size to any one else but the dealer."—Washington Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 20, 1900.

THE INDUSTRIAL CONVENTION

Address on the Commercial Conditions of the South Rejected After a Heated Discussion.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, GA., July 19.—At the second day's session of the Southern Industrial Convention here, the public address on the commercial conditions of the South, prepared by a special committee, was rejected after a heated discussion. The delegates held that the address was an endorsement of the Republican platform in many particulars, and did not think politics should enter into their organization.

D. A. Tompkins, of North Carolina, spoke in opposition to the clauses endorsing the political currency system and relating to the protection of American labor.

B. W. Blackburn, of Atlanta, said the address was a direct endorsement of the Republican platform. "If this address is stamped with approval from this convention" he said, "you place a bludgeon in the hands of Hanna and his campaign committee to weild over the heads of this section."

C. E. Sanders and R. L. Bennett, both of Mississippi, opposed the address.

Mr. Tompkins said if there was anything good in the address it should be accepted, without regard to politics.

L. L. Gilbert, of Alabama, moved that a committee of seven be appointed to draw up a new address on industrial lines, instead of political lines. The motion was adopted.

The organization committee will consider the following resolution from Mr. Frowell, of South Carolina:

"Resolved, That the Southern Industrial Leagues should be formed all over the South, in every county and town, with the purpose of developing our resources, and that a committhe of three from each State be appointed by this League to take the matter up and get these leagues in working order by our next convention."

The convention, after hearing several addresses on industrial subjects, adjurned until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

THE THIRD PARTY.

Committee Appointed to Meet in Indianapolis, Ind., July 24th and Call a Convention.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Thomas M. Osborne, chosen chairman by the Independents at the meeting at the Plaza Hotel last night and empowered to choose a committee to go to Indianapolis July 25th, named a committee on plan and scope to-day. Among the members are Dr. William Everett, Quincy, Mass.; Albert Warren Kelser, Philadelphia; George C. Ripley, Minneapolis; William J. Palmer, Colorado Springs; Col. Thos. M. Rogers, St. Louis.

Mr. Osborne expects to have a representative from every State and if possible from as many Congressional districts as possible. The committee will meet in Indianapolis on July 24th, and form a plan for the selection of a third ticket, on which all independents—Gold Democrats, Anti-Imperialists, and others can join. The Gold Democrats will meet in Indianapolis July 25th, and the plan will be to have the committee call a convention, at which all parties now opposing the candidates of the two old parties can meet and unite on a third ticket and adopt a platform approved by both Gold Democrats and Anti-Imperialists, and also by Republicans dissatisfied with McKinley and Democrats dissatisfied with Bryan for any reason whatever.

Mr. Klein said the committee would prepare a plan for a third ticket irrespective of what the Gold Democrats did.

BATTLESHIP OREGON.

Will Patch at Kure, Japan, and Then Go to Taku, China.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The Navy Department this morning received the following dispatch from Captain Wilde, of the Oregon, dated Kure, July 18:

"Oregon and Nashville arrived at Kure at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Expect to dock on the 19th. Shall I make permanent or temporary repairs? I would suggest putting on steel patches which can be done in a very short time and ship then go back to her duty or Taku. To make permanent repairs will require at least sixty days; probably more. Not a single man injured in anyway.

"WILDE."

To this Secretary Long at once replied as follows:

"Universal rejoicing over safety of Oregon. She is the Constitution of this generation. If the safety of the Oregon permits, patch and go to Taku. I commend your preference for service there. LONG."

ORDERED TO CHINA.

Marines from Norfolk Navy Yard En Route to San Francisco.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NORFOLK, VA., July 19.—Orders were received at the marine barracks of the navy yard to day to send fifty-four men to Washington this evening, where they will join a battalion which leaves Sunday for San Francisco, thence to China. This leaves 142 men at the barracks, 80 of whom are raw recruits.

"I have received telegraphic instructions from General Heywood, commandant of the marine corps," said the commanding officer to-day, "to drill the recruits as rapidly as possible, so that they may be forwarded to China at the earliest possible moment. One hundred and thirty men have been withdrawn from here within the past month." The fifty-four men left on the Washington steamer to night.

Says Ministers Were Alive July 8th—France and Germany Recognize That a State of War Exists—Fighting in Manchuria.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, July 20, 4 A. M.—"The Washington idea of sending Mr. Rockhill to China," says the Standard editorially, this morning, "is an excellent one and might advantageously be imitated by the British and other governments."

The Standard then proceeds to comment upon the great ignorance prevalent in Europe not only of recent events, but of Chinese affairs generally. The cabinet council convened by Lord Salisbury yesterday came a day earlier than usual, and it is expected that it will be followed by a statement in Parliament throwing light upon the situation.

The Chinese assertions that the members of the foreign legations are still safe have been so often repeated that they are again beginning to raise hopes in some quarters. According to the Daily Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent, however, the Russian government is already in possession of definite news that all the foreigners in Pekin were massacred on July 6.

The Yokohama correspondent of the Daily Mail, who repeats his statements regarding the jealousy felt among the allies on the subject of a Japanese commander-in-chief, and the general lack of unity among them, adds: "The Japanese correspondents charge the Russian soldiers with appalling barbarity toward the Chinese. They declare that the Pieho is full of the corpses of women and children and that the Russians loaded 300 bodies on a junk and burned them.

Shanghai reports that three mission stations on Po Yank lake have been destroyed, but it is believed that the missionaries escaped. All the missionaries in Chinese Manchuria have arrived in safety at Vladivostock.

It is rumored that Tu Lu, the missing viceroy of the province of Chi Li, has committed suicide. Various conflicting stories are published of the manner of Gen. Nieh's death.

It is stated that when the allies entered the native city of Tien Tsin they found the Chinese dead piled breast high and it was feared that this would result in an outbreak of pestilence. Sixteen of the captured guns are quite modern weapons.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Times expresses doubt that the southern viceroys will be able to withstand the pressure of the provincial officials to join the anti-foreign movement. He thinks that already there are signs of wavering.

A State of War Recognized.

LONDON, July 19.—The action of Count Von Buelow, the German minister of foreign affairs, in informing the Chinese legation at Berlin that all telegraphic messages must be in plain language and submitted for approval by the censor, and the suggestion of M. DelCasse, the French minister of foreign affairs, that the exporation of arms to China be prohibited, which are generally regarded here as long step in the direction of treating China as a state engaged in war, have been supplemented this morning by the official announcement from St. Petersburg that certain portions of the Amur territory, including parts of the Khabarovsk district and the coast territory, as well as the town of Blagovestchensk, Khabarovsk and Nikolskussuri have been declared in a state of war since July 17th.

Russia's announcement is regarded in London as at least foreshadowing a speedy unconditional recognition of the fact that a condition of war exists between China and the civilized world, and the general opinion seems to favor such recognition as the best means of meeting the barbarian upheaval, while at the same time endeavoring to isolate the independent viceroys from the general conflagration.

British Troops Arriving.

BERLIN, July 19.—A dispatch from Taku received here to-day, says the first steamer bringing Indian troops to China arrived there Monday, July 16.

LONDON, July 19.—A dispatch from Shanghai, received here to-day, reports that the loss of the Chinese in the fighting at Tien Tsin was upwards of 3,000.

It is understood that Lieutenant General Sir Francis Grenfell will have charge of the British forces in China.

Li Hung Chang.

HONG KONG, July 18.—Li Hung Chang and his suite arrived here yesterday evening and landed this morning. Li Hung Chang was received with a salute of seventeen guns, and with a guard of honor from the Welch Fusiliers and band proceeded to the government house. He was extremely reticent, but stated that he had received definite news that the ministers and foreigners at Pekin, with the exception of Baron von Ketteler, the German minister, were safe July 8.

The imperial edict recalling him to Pekin, the viceroy said, was due to the Empress and Emperor, and not to Prince Tuan.

The governor of Canton is regarded as an exceptionally weak official, and the natives fear he will never succeed in maintaining order.

A transport with a portion of the Bengal lancers, a native field hospital, and Generals Gazelee and Barrow, has proceeded to Taku. The deck-protected cruiser Dido has gone to Woo Sung.

At Tien Tsin.

BERLIN, July 19.—A report has been forwarded by Count Von Usedom, of the German second class cruiser Hertha, of the capture of the native city of Tien Tsin by the allied forces. The report says: "Scarcely any resistance was experienced when the Americans, British and Japanese finally stormed the walled native city on the afternoon of July 14th. Fighting was still in progress on the side of the town where the Russians were trying to seize a Chinese camp. On the morning of July 15th, Russian flags were flowing from the Chinese camp and citadel."

Another Shanghai Telegram.

PARIS, July 19.—An official telegram from Shanghai, dated July 18th, states that according to the Governor of Shan Tung, the foreign ministers and their families at Pekin are safe and sound, but that the danger is still very great. The viceroy, according to this dispatch, informed the consular corps that he had telegraphed to Pekin urging the protection of the foreign legations.

Situation at Pekin July 1st.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The Japanese legation here has made public the latest communication received by it from Baron Nissi, the Japanese minister at Pekin This telegram was received to-day at the legation from the Japanese minister of foreign affairs and is important because of the dates given. The telegram was dated July 13 by the sender, the Japanese consul at Che Foo, and is as follows:

"I received at 10 A. M., on the 12th, a dispatch from Baron Nissi, dated Pekin, June 29th. The letter was brought by a special messenger—a Chinese—who left Pekin July 1 and managed to make the journey with great difficulty. The substance of the letter is as follows:

"'The situation at Pekin is extremely critical. The foreign legations are surrounded on all sides by Chinese soldiers and bombarded night and day. The members of the legations, the guards and residents are resisting to the utmost, but the overwhelming numbers of the enemy make opposition useless; our ammunition is being exhausted; our lives are in such danger that we may be massacred at any moment. We earnestly request the immediate dispatch of reinforcements for our rescue from our precarious condition.'"

The Japanese consul at Che Foo adds that he communicated this letter to his colleagues of the consular body there and also to the commanders in-chief of the forces of the powers.

Another cablegram received here through the foreign office from the Japanese consul at Che Foo reports that Tien Tsin castle was captured by the forces of the allies on the 14th and the safety of the foreign settlements is assured. Japanese troops took possession of Susse-Ying, the Chinese naval station on the 14th.

RUSSIANS DEFEAT CHINESE.

Fighting in Manchuria—The Siberian Railroad Closed—Russian Advance on Pekin Delayed.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, July 20, 4 P. M.—The Russians, according to the latest news from St. Petersburg, have now completely defeated the Chinese and have occupied the capital of the Amur government with a large force. Since Gen. Gribski, chief of staff at Fort Arthur, has taken over the supreme command in Manchuria, reinforcements have been rapidly pushed up and the general situation has been greatly improved. The Russian Minister of the Interior has issued a notice that the Siberian railway is closed to private traffic. There is little doubt that the Russian authorities were not prepared for such an organized Chinese movement in Manchuria, but they have taken brisk measures, and they believe that China will soon be too much pre-occupied with military operations around Pekin to conduct serious operations in the north.

The Daily Mail's Shanghai correspondent says: Advices from Vladivostock state that the Chinese invasion of Eastern Siberia has stopped the Russian advance from the north on Pekin. The Russians have burned the Chinese town of Helampo and are adopting very vigorous measures.

Berlin telegrams dwell upon the immense German interests in southeastern Siberia. They say that the many German merchants, the German employes and the immense stores of merchandise belonging to Germans in that territory, will compel Germany to cooperate with Russia in resisting the Chinese.

Gen. Sir Arthur Power Palmer, commander-in-chief in India, said in the course of an interview in Simla yesterday, that no more British troops could be sent from India unless they could be replaced from South Africa.

THE CASE OF NEELY.

Further Testimony to Be Heard on the Application for Extradition.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Judge Lacombe, of the U. S. Circuit Court, to-day rendered an opinion in the case of Charles F. W. Neely, charged with having defrauded the U. S. postal department in Cuba, in which he declared that the mere presentation of an indictment cannot be held sufficient for Neely's extradition, and that further testimony will be heard when the case comes up on July 23.

U. S. GOVERNMENT'S CHINESE POLICY.

Discredits All Reports Indicative of Discord Among the European Powers.

CORDIAL WITH MINISTER WU.

No Restriction to Be Placed Upon His Liberty—Instructions Sent to Gen. Chaffee—A Special Commissioner to Go to China.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—In the absence of direct news from China this morning, attention was directed mainly to the more or less speculative stories emanating from European capitals indicative of discord among the powers. It is realized that these little bulletins of mutual suspicion always characterized allied movements, and so are to be expected in the present case. It can be stated that, so far as official records disclose, there is absolutely no ground for them.

Our government having fully defined its intentions in Secretary Hay's note of July 3d, the other governments interested in the Chinese situation have entered into the spirit of that declaration of principle with perfect accord. At least that is the record, both written and oral, and Russia, a power more than any other under suspicion in these stories, has not been backward in assuring the State Department of the coincidence of Secretary Hay's declaration with Russia's purpose in China. It is, of course, possible, that some of the powers are swayed by motives that do not appear in their formal declarations. The State Department, however, cannot go behind their formal expression and can now only await results.

There is not the slightest disposition on the part of our government to follow the example of certain European powers and restrict in any measure the liberty of the Chinese minister here, Mr. Wu, in communicating with the Chinese viceroys and whatever remains of the titular Chinese government. On the contrary, crediting the minister with an earnest desire to do everything in his power to protect foreigners in the Chinese empire, and confident that he has no sympathy with the insurrectionary Boxer element, the State Department regards it as good policy to facilitate rather than obstruct his communication with the Chinese viceroys. Acting itself on this theory, the department does not credit the stories that any of the Chinese ministers in Europe have been given their passports.

If there should be a declaration of war by Russia on China, based on what is said to have occurred on the Siberian border, the technical relations of the allied powers towards China might, it is said here, undergo a radical change. It is believed that the story of Boxer activity is greatly exaggerated so far as it relates to the country north of the Siberian border, and it is hoped that the troubles have been confined to Manchuria. But if war should actually and formally open between Russia and China, that fact might oblidge the other powers to do one of two things; either join in the declaration of war, or withdraw their forces from Chinese soil.

Minister Wu and Mr. Wollant, the Russian charge, again called upon Secretary Hay this morning, but neither had news from China.

Developments in the military situation to-day were the formal designation of Brigadier General Chaffee as a major general of volunteers and making of other arrangements for a prolonged campaign on a large scale in China. The officials hope that it will be short; but they are preparing to send coal and winter clothing, so they are getting ready for the other contingency.

Instructions to Chaffee.

At to day's cabinet meeting the question of instructions to Major General Chaffee was gone over at considerable length and a cablegram was drafted which will be forwarded to reach him on his arrival at Nagasaki. These instructions are of a diplomatic as well as of a military nature and indicate the line of policy to be pursued by the commander of the United States forces in China. The exact nature of the instructions was not disclosed, but it can be stated on good authority that they follow the same line of policy that already has been outlined in the statement from the State Department.

The rank of major general of the commander of the Chinese expedition will necessitate the presence of two or perhaps three brigadier generals in China. These, in all probability, will be chosen from the officers of that rank now in the Philippines, but General Chaffee will be given considerable latitude in the selection of his staff.

Special Commissioner.

W. W. Rockhill, director of the Bureau of American Republics, has been appointed a special commissioner from this country to go to China and report upon the situation.

For some reason the officials did not care to have it known that Mr. Rockhill had been selected for this responsible duty. Within a week he will have a final conference with the President and Secretary Hay and then will leave for China.

Cranks and Agitators.

The government authorities are finding that the present Chinese situation is having the usual effect of stimulating cranks and agitators, and many of the highest officials are receiving anonymous letters containing advice, and sometimes threats. The Chinese officials are also victims of foolish effusions. They are not considered seriously, however, and the officials, both government and Chinese, dismiss them as silly, from ignorant persons. On their face, some of these communications look belligerent, but their illiteracy and braggadocio modify their effect. The governmeut officials express regret that in the delicate position in which the country is placed at this time it should be embarrassed by anonymous writers, and steps are being quietly taken to apprehend the guilty parties.

BUTLER MAKES A DESPERATE EFFORT

To Defeat the Will of the People of the State of North Carolina and Intimidate Registrars.

Dispairing of carrying the election by fair means Butler now resorts to more flagrant, desperate and despicable means to intimidate the registrars of the East than were resorted to by Holton and his revenue gang in the West.

In persuance of this fatuous policy he is sending telegrams to his henchmen in various sections directing them to take out warrants for the arrests of white registrars before United States Commissioners for properly refusing to register negroes who are not entitled to vote and before justices of the peace for refusing to register white men who may be disfranchised.

He is also sending out circulars with the same view of intimidating registrars; a copy of which is as follows:

PEOPLE'S PARTY, STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE,
RALEIGH, N. C., July 18th.

MY DEAR SIR: I have already sent you blank form of affidavit and warrant for the arrest of any registrar who violates Section 5501 of the Federal Election Laws, but, as you know, this law only covers discriminations against the negro voter. We have had the Democratic registrar at Winston arrested, tried, and bound over under a two thousand dollar bond to the Federal Court for violating that section of the Federal Election Law. As soon as this proceeding was over, the Democratic politicians had our witnesses in that case arrested under a bogus form of procedure We are taking steps to day to have everyone of these politicians who took part in having those witnesses arrested, jerked up for contempt of Federal Court, and we will do it everywhere. So you can assure witaesses that if they are intimidated, we will punish to the full extent of the law every man who intimidates them in any way and land these intimidators in the Federal penitentiary.

During the last few days, I have had many complaints from different parts of the State saying the registrars are now refusing to register white men who are legally qualified. There are two remedies that you have against a registrar for this offence. One is under Section 47 of the election law, which says that any registrar who fails to "perform the duties required of him shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or imprisoned not more than six months nor less than two months." Besides, the same section, as you will see from reading on down, provides that the Attorney General can sue every registrar and recover five hundred dollars in addition to the above penalty. Read this section of the election law to the registrar in your precinct. If he has refused to register anyone qualified to register, or if he has failed to open his books at the hour prescribed on every Saturday at the polling place, or if he has failed to have his books opened at his house or place of business on every week-day, or if he has gone off and left his registration books in the hands of his son or his wife or anyone else instead of being present in person to register you or others, or if he has failed to perform any other duty that the law requires of him, then at once have any person who has been denied registration or who has failed to get an opportunity to register for any other cause, to swear out at once a warrant for his arrest before the nearest justice of the peace who is a good and reliable man, and have him to issue a warrant for the arrest of said registrar. I enclose you the blank form of affidavit and warrant for this purpose on one sheet. This sheet is marked (Form No. 1.)

The other remedy which I have referred to above and to which I have referred in a former letter, is the writ of mandamus. You can proceed to have the man arrest the man by a magistrate, as I have indicated above. by using the blank form on sheet marked No. Or you can make an affidavit and apply to the Judge of the Superior Court who lives in your district or the Judge holding court in your district, to issue a writ of mandamus to the registrar, ordering him to register you and other voters. This blank form of writ of mandamus and blank form for the judge to use to issue the writ of mandamus are both contained on another sheet marked No. 2.

In many cases I fear it will be impossible to reach a judge and get the writ of mandamus issued, but you can in every case resort to the other remedy by going before a magistrate and using a criminal process as set forth on Form No. 1. Don't fail to do this, because when the registration books close on next Saturday it will then be too late, and we must make a test case of this law and exert every effort to punish every registrar who has violated the law. The liberties of the people of the State demand it. You have the law on your side, and you have the opportunity to enforce it and thus secure justice. Don't fail to do it.

Now, one word more. Have you seen to it that you are registered correctly? Did the registrar swear you? Did he enter your name on the book, instead of on a piece of paper as I understand they are doing in many cases? Did the registrar register you himself, or was it done by his wife or son or someone else? Did you look carefully to see that he entered your name, race and color properly after your name? If not go at once, and get every other voter who is improperly registered in any particular, however small, to go back to the registrar with at least two witnesses and demand that he re-register you or correct the mistakes above referred to, or any other mistakes that you may find that he has made. When you have done this, if he still refuses to register you or to make any necessary correction, then read to him Section 49 of the Election Law, that is, the last part of the section, on page 21, beginning, with the words, "and any registrar or voter," etc', which provides that any registrar who wilfully or fraudulently makes any mistakes in registering a man shall be guilty of an infamous crime and put in the penitentiary and disfranchised. My information is that the registration has gone on more smoothly all over the State than we expected. The trouble has been in spots. Therefore, their hope now is to challenge a sufficient number of men who are on the registration books and prevent them from voting in order to carry the election. Therefore, you must see that every mistake is corrected and every ground for challenge is removed before Saturday night. When you have done this, or at least tried to get the registrar to do it, you have done all that you can do, and if you lose your vote then you can prosecute him. You cannot convict a registrar of committing fraud wilfully unless you call his attention to the mistakes and ask him to make the correction, or to perform his duty, in the presence of witnesses. If you do this, and he still refuses, you can have him indicted and arrested at once, and you will land him in the penitentiary as sure as the sun shines. In short, as vicious as this Election Law is, there is still left in it sufficient provision if enforced for you to protect your liberties and the liberties of the people, or else put every one of these registrars who violate the law in the penitentiary or under a heavy fine. Do this, and do it promptly, and all will be well. Yours, truly,

MARION BUTLER, Chairman.

P. S. I enclose you a blank for registration statistics. It is important for us to know at headquarters as soon as possible just how registration stands. If you cannot give me the figures exactly, then fill up blank and send to me, giving the number of those registered and refused registration as near as possible of each party. Also state as near as you can how many voters of each party in your precinct did not attempt to register.

Butler knows and virtually admits in the above circular that registrars are not refusing to register any properly qualified applicants, and the circular is only a desperate attempt to rally his own demoralized and rapidly disintegrating forces and to intimidate and frighten registrars into registering disqualified negroes. He will find himself mistaken.

The white men of North Carolina are not so easily to be frightened.

Registrars, do your duty. Remember that the State Democratic organization, the great white race, 178,000 strong, the wealth, intelligence and virtue of the State of North Carolina, stand at your back and will see you protected in the proper discharge of your duty.

White Supremacy

Two years ago the white men of this county boldly and openly declared that negro domination was and should ever be a thing of the past, and that White Supremacy had come to stay. White government is here and will ever remain, but it is the duty of every white man to REGISTER and settle once for all time this momentous question through the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment. The whites are the property owners and wealth producers, and have neither time nor disposition to habitually work politics, and the Amendment is offered as the only sure means to establish and maintain white government without frequent recurrence to political agitation. Government is the public business of the people, and the better the government the better the private business.

New Hanover will give 3,000 majority for the Amendment and White Supremacy, if every white man will do his duty and register. Remember that if the Amendment carry, the political status is fixed for all time to come, but if it fail, it means another campaign of agitated feeling, political unrest and business uncertainty. It must be clear, therefore, that the Amendment is a business as well as a social proposition. Politically the negro is now a back number. With the adoption of the Amendment, he will be a dead language.
